Abu Sa'id al-Khudri reported: The Messenger of Allah, peace and blessings be upon him, said, "The Mahdi will be from my lineage, with a curved nose. He will fill the earth with justice and equity, just as it had been filled with tyranny and oppression. He will rule for seven years."

Sunan Abi Dawid

THE INTERNATIONAL WORLD ORDER IS
CRUMBLING!

In taking a quick broad look at the conditions of the "international world order" - with its warring camps, and its escalating conflicts that have now gone beyond the borders of the main nations which have not only extended to allied nations but have in fact even touched followers and partners – we find no description more accurate to what has befallen this jahili order other than degradation, fragmentation, and dissonance.

Taking a closer look at the more recent arena of conflict, specifically the area east of the Euphrates, for instance, where an internal war broke out between the PKK militias, who years past fought together against the mujahidin – and today find themselves going against each other and dividing into "Kurdish" and "Arab" camps, both of which fought and still fight for the sake of the taghut, one does not need to delve into a quagmire of analysis and conjecture to understand this large, deep, escalating divide between the members of the world order, for conflict between the masters always leads to conflict among the slaves.

This jahili world order, whether among its non-Arab or Arab members, was built upon the jahiliyya doctrine, the interests of which come together at one juncture only: the war against Islam; otherwise, they are dissonant. However, none of the members of this jahili order expected to reach this point of disintegration, dilapidation, and conflict, which has exceeded all outlooks, and contradicted all analysis, bringing failure to all plans and plots. "And the disbelievers made a plan, but Allah also planned and Allah is the best of planners".

The signs of the disintegrating world order did not stop with the "Crusader versus Crusader" war between Ukraine and Russia, but it reached Africa, where the Crusader French and European territories saw a series of consecutive coups, the most recent of which, in Gabon, will not be the last. All of this threatens the French and European interests after many years during which the Crusaders thought the land was theirs and they were able to control it, until Allah's command befell them.

The matter has not been confined to conflicts between members of main countries within this world order, but it has extended to conflict between nations and their masters which are embodied in security companies and mercenaries. In the assassination of the "Wagner" militia leader, we saw how serving Russia for many years did not help in any way when the leaders of this crumbling global order were faced with limited options.

Division and fragmentation also touched the Jewish statelet which is experiencing its worst political environment yet and is failing to resolve its internal conflict in the face of an escalated tempo of individual attacks, for which the Iranian funded groups try to sneak claim, while the Palestinian youth leave post mortem statements in which they distance themselves from them in an ideological initiative which, by the will of Allah, will have more to come.

As the cold war between the Western and Eastern camps worsens, and it carves a path toward an inevitable hot war – which they are futilely attempting to postpone – the signs of an American-Iranian conflict looms upon the "Fertile Crescent" area to block Iran's bridge to Beirut. Perhaps, America's cheapest option will be the "tribal traitors" who will form a defense wall to protect its interests, above and beneath ground.

We again turn to the Syrian scene where battles have broken out between the Arab and Kurdish arms of the PKK militias after many years of alliance in fighting the mujahidin under the cover of American planes. After only recently having fought shoulder to shoulder, dancing to the tune of the Crusader American air raids that dismembered the bodies of Muslim women and children in Baghouz, as their revolutionary media touted this accomplishment; today they kill and curse each other while the same media markets this scene as an Arab revolution against the "Kurdish occupier"! So, were they an ally and a friend as you waged war upon.

PKK KURDISH KAFIR

Deir ez-Zor is apparently back to normal, following a week of infighting between the PKK Kurdish Kafir and some factions of the local Arab tribes of murtaddin. After 10 years of submission and dishonor, the latter decided to rebel against the forces of atheism occupying lands of the Muslims in Sham. But what were they expecting to achieve after their betrayal with the Islamic Khilafah? Choosing the “path of misguidance” – namely, ditching the mujahidin to side with worshippers of the Marxist-Communist idol empowered by the U.S. Christian Crusaders – could not but be the recipe of failure.

They wanted to be the “kings” of Deir ez-Zor, exploiting the victory of the mujahidin who liberated the region from the bloody hands of Bashar Al Assad’s Nusayri regime, and to that effect they thought that joining the enemies of the Jihad fi Sabilillah would have been a smart move. This is how the traitor Arab tribes became no more than small pawns in the geopolitical schemes of the Kafir, whose aim is to prevent the triumph of the Word of Allah Ta’ala in the Sham, as the most dangerous threat to the existence of the imperialistic Zionist statelet of Israel.

The Jewish “experts” who took over all the relevant “structures” in Washington, D.C., the capital of the Zio-Crusaderist evil empire, are well aware of the implications of the ruling in the Sham of the true muwahiddun, which is meant to be incessant till the rise of the Mahdi’s army and the subsequent events that will end the Zionist occupation of Al Quds and the whole Palestine, bi’idhnillah. Therefore, driven by the utmost fear, they want to delay as much as possible the fulfillment of these signs, although their coming is inscribed in the future history of the world, bi’idhnillah. Instead of supporting the mujahidin, as humble servants of the cause of the Lord, the traitor Arab tribes in Deir ez-preferred to embrace the ranks of the Dajjal's predecessors, along with the strange couple between the U.S. Christian Crusaders and the PKK Kurdish Kafir, put together by the Jewish "experts" above to wage war on the Islamic Khilafah at the behest of the imperialistic Zionist statelet of Israel. The reward of the traitor Arab tribes for turning their weapons against the Khilafah and then for their complicity in the PKK persecution of the muwahiddun was highly predictable: dissatisfaction, injustice, and oppression, precisely at the hands of their own "allies".

Yet, despite their sins and misdeeds, the traitor Arab tribes are so blind and unrepentant that the Ar-Rahman Himself, the Bestower of Mercy, the Most Compassionate, seems to be unwilling to drive them back to the Straight Path (Sirat al Mustaqim) [Al Qasas, 28:56], as demonstrated by the recent developments in Deir ez-Zor. The offensive launched against the PKK Kurdish Kafir gave, for a moment, the illusion of being successful in seizing portions of territory. As said, however, it was just a brief illusion, since the atheist forces succeeded in regaining swiftly full control of the situation thanks to their superior military might.

To be sure, this was not an obvious outcome, but the result of the deviant choices that were made by the traitor Arab tribes. If they had sought the helping hand of the mujahidin across Deir ez-Zor and the other regions of Sham, and if they had mobilized those Muslims among the population who yearn for the full consolidation of the Islamic State (and there are many), the events with the permission of the Almighty would have taken a different direction. Instead, "they wronged themselves" one more time [Hud, 11:101].

The support coming from their tribal bedfellows in Idlib, urged by the Turkish Taghuti regime through its proxies of "Hayat Tahrir Al Scum", backtracked when somebody from Washington so decided, out of concern that an escalation would have disrupted the status quo in Deir ez-Zor. Ultimately, they pinned their hopes on Al Jawlany and Erdogan the munafiqun, and got the results they deserved.

Defeated and degraded, the traitor Arab tribes revealed their cowardice and shallowness by immediately accepting the terms of the demise: that is, the promise of more money and more positions of power just to save their faces, while de facto nothing will change, including their commitment to keep fighting the Islamic State. However, from this point of view, Deir ez-Zor seems not to come back to the usual business. The latest events did not happen in vain.

The population has been restive for years, and the fake sheikhs and elders heading the traitor Arab tribes decided to defy the PKK Kafir out fear of definitely losing legitimacy in the eyes of their power base. However, after witnessing their debacle, tens of thousands of Arab youths have revolted against them and the PKK Kurdish Kafir together. They are standing up for their rights on their own land, in front of the repeated violations by the occupying atheist forces, which the fake sheikhs and elders first appeased and then failed to confront.

As we write, plenty of videos and images are circulating on the internet and social media, showing the demonstrations that are swiping Deir ez-Zor. Waves of youths are lashing out at the widespread corruption and social injustice, at the theft by the PKK Kurdish Kafir and the U.S. Christian Crusaders of the oil resources bestowed to Muslims by Ar-Razzaq, the All-Provider. More importantly, they came up with a display of resistance to the worshippers of the Marxist-Communist idol, who intend to progressively weaken Islam in the region until its disappearance for the sake of establishing the same reign of jahiliyyah and shirk that is putrefying the Western societies.

And such a development emerged at the time when the hearts of the ummah harbor deep grief and anger at the inhumane captivity of over 60,000 Muslim women in the concentration camps of Al Hawl and Al Roj, imprisoned with their children just due to their pure and unmovable faith in the Tawhid by the PKK Kurdish Kafir, acting on behalf of the international coalition against Islam in the framework of the UN global Taghut.

However, demonstration in front of Ghairullah is a comical way of self-relaxation of tensions, which hardly possesses any potential of bringing an infinitesimal change in the transgression of the tyrants except for a short break for diverting the attention of the angry masses. If that were not the case, we would have seen the entire Middle East being ruled by the Shari'ah of Allah and excellent manifestation of true justice, and the ousting of the Arab tyrants. But unfortunately, those tyrants are still there or at best replaced by another tyrant having a bit more efficiency in neutralizing public tensions and frustration with trickery. Nevertheless, the demonstration in the streets and squares of Deir ez-Zor makes us hopeful that the days are not far when zealous Muslims will truly stand up to reckon with the tyrants for the ongoing oppressions against their sisters in Al Hol and Al Roj camps.

Moreover, the youths of Deir ez-Zor are pointing the finger at those tribal gangs who have put themselves at the service of the Nusayri regime. They are regarded as traitors as well, and blamed for profiting from drug production (captagon) and other illicit trafficking run by Assad's criminal syndicates.

"If the Islamic Khilafah had been given the chance to grow and flourish, Muslims in Deir ez-Zor would not be in the miserable condition of today. Sheikhs and elders: be damned for your betrayal! Hellfire is awaiting you for eternity!". Truly, Muslims are like a single body, when one part of it aches, the other parts can't really remain irresponsible to it. If Muslims, especially of Sham, truly come up with such sincere cry of despair for their brothers and sisters in faith spending days and nights of captivity in the university of Yousuf 'Alayhis Salam (i.e. prison), they will surely find the mujahidin fi Sabilillah, who are striving in the battlefield terrorizing the infidels and their bootlickers, by their side, bi'idhnillah.

Prompted by the regret for the time when Deir ez-Zor was the second capital of the Islamic Khilafah, zealous youth should join the ranks of the mujahidin for strengthening them against the infidels, and that will be far better than demonstration in front of the tyrants. Unquestionably, such an inevitable scenario is going to be the ultimate nightmare for the tyrants, bi'idhnillah.

Acting with patience and trust in the Al Qadir, the All Powerful, the mujahidin have managed to expand their territorial presence all over Deir ez-Zor, steadily increasing their recruitment ability and escalating lethal attacks against both the PKK Kurdish Kafir and the traitor Arab tribes. As a clear sign of the favorable popular sentiment toward them, convoys of muwahidun in the town of Izba wavering the flag of the Islamic Khilafah called for its return against the passiveness of Muslims in the Sham facing the burning of the Noble Quran in Sweden.

During the clashes between the PKK Kurdish Kafir and the traitor Arab tribes, the Islamic Khilafah decided not to intervene directly, so as to leave the atheist forces and the murtaddin weaken each other: a wise strategic decision that has now opened for the mujahidin the way of the upcoming major campaign to restore a rightly guided government in Deir ez-Zor.

The wind of the Shami revolution is blowing anew also in the areas occupied by the Nusayri regime. There will be no wonder to see Muslims mobilizing to call for the downfall of Assad's tyranny, which is (as usual) starving the population and bloodily cracking down on opponents, while allowing the Iranian Rafidah and the Russian Christian Crusaders to further tighten their grip on the Sham at their expense. In light of the events that previously disrupted the Shami revolution, they are now fully aware of the betrayal of "Hayat Tahrir Al Scum", Turkey, and the array of armed groups under Turkish control in the north. They know that their enmity with the Nusayri regime is no more than a façade, having Al Jawlani and Erdogan the muna-fiqun already worked out with Assad a power/territory sharing agreement on Idlib. For the official announcement, it is just a matter of time, but meanwhile it became obvious also the betrayal of the League of the Arab Taghuti regimes, which reembraced the tyrant again in its filthy fold as if he had never attempted to exterminate Muslims in the Sham, forcing millions and millions to flee. And the betrayal of the so-called "international community" is obvious as well, since it has never really supported the endeavor to topple the dictatorship.

All of the above has led Muslims in the occupied areas to realize that the only hope they can rely on is Allah Ta'ala, regretting not to have joined the Islamic Khilafah as soon as the Almighty sent it for the liberation of Sham. The grievous predicament caused by the disregard of His signs navigated them through a full understanding of the truth, similarly to the youth in Deir ez-Zor. And Allah Azzawajjal is Capable in unifying the two protest movements and turning them into a new platform to launch the true Shami revolution fi Sabilillah, with the mujahidin at its helm under the command of the Amir al Mu'minin and our fifth Khalifah, Shaykh Abu Hafs Al Hashimi Al Qurashi (may Allah protect him).

This is a new opportunity also for the brothers and sisters in Idlib and Aleppo, whose immense suffering due to bombings, calamities, and bad governance, is a call to take up the arms of Jihad again. The time is now, the Islamic Khilafah will continue brandishing the sword of Prophet Muhammad (ﷺ) until victory for all Muslims will be achieved. Let the cry of justice resound high and clear all over the Sham.

T A K B I R !

‘UMARI
JUSTICE
or HAIBATI
IGNORANCE

From the very beginning, the distance between words and actions of Taliban murtaddin is like the distance between the heaven and the earth. Taliban is a murtadd fighting faction whose leaders and subordinates were trained in the ISI administered schools in trickery, fraud, deception, lies, and the art of deceiving people in such a way that one may think that they have exceeded even Shaitan in spreading corruption upon earth. Their level of justice and conducts (!) were already known to the people in the remote areas of Afghanistan for a long time, when the Afghan cities were not entrusted to them yet, and they would trick people with empty words and slogans about implementing the Shari'ah of Allah, if they ever gain power of Afghanistan. They used to talk about justice and fairness, and give fake promises of fulfilling rights of all, in addition to many other deceptive stories, but when their masters(America) handed over the cities to them, people started witnessing what these traitors (Taliban militia) had been meaning by justice so far. People also started seeing them implementing a new form of democratic system, which was devised in Doha, in the name of Islam.

It is not hidden to anyone that how the Taliban polytheists kept upholding empty slogans of enforcing Shari'ah and ensuring justice for people prior to their coming to power. The story is already known to all. Let us explain the reality of 'Umari justice or extreme level of ignorance by the Haibati savages, Allah willing.

'Umar ﷺ was the person who became the leader of the prophetic system. He was preceded by Abu Bakr Siddique ؓ as the Khalifah. So the structure of the same prophetic system was right there for him already.

On the other hand, if you look at the basis of the system of the Taliban polytheists now, you will see that the structure of this existing system, which they call a Shari' system, was originally devised by their disbelieving masters in Doha. First the Taliban officials were transferred to Doha from Afghanistan under the pretext of negotiation, and they were given practical training on the implementation of this new democratic system in the name of Islam, and finally, they were transferred from this American intelligence headquarters in Qatar to Kandahar by a military plane. And in Doha, the principles of the monstrous barbaric system was devised by the operatives of CIA, Rand Corporation, ISI, and a Zio-Crusaderist organization named 'Pugwash'. The Shari' court of Hazrat 'Umar رض never acknowledged any geographical boundaries drawn by the fallible idea of nationalism, rather the parameters for defining boundaries of the lands were Islam and Kufr. The entire Islamic land was governed by a Khalifah, and he enforced Shari'ah on the vast span of approximately 2,251,030 miles area, and this Shari'ah rule was going on.

All these imaginary border lines based patriotism, nationalism, and partisanship were destroyed by the Shari'ah court of 'Umar رض.

The disbelievers were not given peace assurance, rather they were intimidated by them. The Shari'ah court of 'Umar رض sent detachments from the land of Islam to attack the infidels, and this is not the case with the Taliban murtaddin who say that not a single bullet will be fired from the land of Afghanistan to the disbelievers.

In the Shari'ah court of 'Umar رض, all Muslims were treated equally. If in any corner of the world, a Muslim would be harassed or oppressed by the infidels, the Shari'ah court of 'Umar would question them through actions according to capacity. In the 'Umari justice, there was war with the murderers of the Muslims and the military infidels who robbed the honor of the Muslims, whilst, O Taliban murtaddin, you sit around the same the table with the Chinese communists, who are the murderers of millions of Uyghur Muslims and the robbers of their honor, along with other infidels, and bang your empty heads as you listen to music with them.

In 'Umar justice, the parameter for friendship and enmity was not the homeland, rather Imaan and Kufr, while by accepting the Kufri doctrines of nationalism and patriotism, you have not only accepted the geographical lines drawn by the infidels, but you have also agreed to implement the intellectual division proposed by them.

In the 'Umari justice, Jizyah was imposed on the Magians, and after the conquest of Jerusalem, it was also imposed on the Christians when they were humiliated and forbidden to wear white clothes as a sign of honor, to the extent that they were not even allowed to construct buildings higher than that of the Muslims.

Now the situation is the quite opposite, the disbelievers do not give you jizya but charity; they give you multi-million-dollar weakly packages and various other donations for the implementation of their plans.

Now you consider the descendants of the Magians as your brethren, protect their polytheistic rituals, give them peace, and kill the Muwahiddin on the other hand. You have chosen Imams of the Rawafidh as your Imam- the Rawafidh who curse 'Umar ﷺ. Yet you claim to have established a system based on 'Umari justice.

In 'Umari justice, those who would not accept the decision of the Quran and the Sunnah, the third deciding factor was the sword. On the other hand, you have trampled the Shari'ah, being under pressure of the infidels, and you could not enforce even a sub-order of the Shari'ah of Allah.

The Shari'ah court of 'Umar enforced the Shari'ah of Allah Azzawajjal on twenty-two lakh square miles of land, while what you have enforced under the shadow of 'Umari justice in your small Afghanistan, which hardly equals even a small province of the original territories ruled by Hazrat 'Umar, is nothing but a horror designed in the name of Islam in Doha.

You have been striving for the implementation of Jewish projects and feel no hesitation in it, while you don't know what Shari'ah is, nor are you ready to accept any Shari' ruling or values.

In the 'Umari justice, the Shari' ruling would be equally applicable to all, including the elites and the poors. But you have abandoned Shari' hadood (boundaries); other than cutting hand of thief, you cut his hair, blacken his face, and ride him on donkey. You punish poor thieves and adulterers, sparing your leaders when they commit the same crimes.

And the video clips of adultery, sodomy, intoxication, and other moral corruption of dozens of your leaders, including Haqbin, Sae'ed Khosti, and Haqqani, are not hidden to anyone. Whom of them have you subjected to Shari' hudood? Leave Shari' hudood, we haven't even seen you subjecting your adulterer, homosexual, and drunken leaders to the drama you have staged in the name of Shari'ah.

Explain it to us whether all these are propaganda, these video clips have been fabricated, and your own confession about such leaders is a lie or not.

Sated ones thinks that others are sated too. This is why Taliban murtaddin do not understand why people in Afghanistan are selling their children because of hunger, why people are committing suicide being tensed about their hungry children, and this tragic series is still going on, but you can't see the tragic chapter, rather you resort to your blatant lies that there is peace in the country, while neither peace nor the religion has been implemented in your country, since peace will never come, unless the religion is established. Besides, you claim that your country is getting stronger economically and people are self-sufficient now, but the world is a witness to what extent you have established peace in your country at a time when your governors are paying the price for this imaginary peace by getting assassinated right in your government buildings in different provinces. People in Afghanistan are selling children because of hunger, while you are filling your pockets with money earned by corruption corruption, for your have already polluted your thoughts.

Taliban murtaddin are busy with their delicious food, festivals, trips, and entertainment, while people are facing extreme level of poverty. Yet, they are making mockery that everything is fine in the country.

The bellies of claimers of 'Umari justice have become so swollen due to overeating that their bodies lag a meter behind their bellies, while starving women and children have to wait for the whole day in front of bakeries in the hope of getting a piece of bread. And Taliban murtaddin receive lump sum amount from thieves, as there goes a proverb: "The sated one is unaware of the hungry one."

Taliban murtaddin are raising the empty chants of 'Umari justice; they have started large businesses with the tax payers' money, lucrative trades are going on both inside and outside the country, so how can they feel the pain of the people who are suffering from severe unemployment and poverty. Taliban mercenaries are passing good time. They only resort to lies, trickery, and treachery, since they have received doctorates from the training centres of ISI of Pakistan.

This is not 'Umari justice, rather brutality of Haibatullah. Their children get education under secular curriculum in Qatar, Islamabad, and other foreign countries. Sucking the blood of the oppressed Muslims, they extravagantly spend in food, clothes, and tours, while the poor masses in Afghanistan sell their children out of great compulsion. So, you will see the true color of the slaves of the neo-colonialists in Afghanistan. Due to excessive eating, every organ of Taliban polytheists are swelling day by day, while the people in Afghanistan are selling their weak body parts out of helplessness.

Yes!

The Taliban version of 'Umari justice can be perceived well when you see that people have lost their affordability due to high prices of commodities; the wheel of their life has literally stopped, to the extent that they can't even afford to transport their sick to hospitals and dead to the graveyard. But you will see the blood suckers of this oppressed nation going to foreign countries in chartered planes for visiting their infidel masters.

This is the so called 'Umari justice of Taliban mercenaries that the people are not even allowed by them to complain about their helplessness and poverty to others; these murtadd militiamen even don't feel any shame in putting the money taken from the infidels in the name of the humanitarian aid for the people in Afghanistan into their pockets. While people have reached the extreme level of poverty in the country, you will see the haughty Taliban militiamen enjoying journey by helicopters to their homes on vacations and even carrying their brides in helicopters.

In this limited context, which examples of the atrocities, injustices, and other crimes committed by Taliban murtaddin we shall enumerate and which one shall we leave?!

Taliban murtaddin know that their premature system, which has been kept alive only by the huge influx US dollars, will soon die, bi'idhnillah, for their very masters (US) are already facing a crippling economy. That's why they are squeezing money from the poor people in the name of taxes, zakat, and so on.

Therefore, there is no wonder to see people feeling extremely unwholesome even upon hearing the name of Taliban murtaddin. And you have also seen that poor farmers have been hit in their fields by these ruthless taxes imposed by Taliban.

In short, as the white veil fell from the black face of Taliban murtaddin has been removed, now all the people have seen the true color of these murtaddin; their hollowness, slogans, deceptions, lies, and tricks are now known to almost everyone, and their level of hatred is increasing day by day among people, and they have recognized this terrible horror (Taliban) imposed on them by the US. They raise empty chants of Shari'ah, and in practice, they have no intention to enforce it in the society.

Therefore, no good can be expected from these hungry wolves for the oppressed Muslim masses, and expecting justice and fairness from them is like crying in the wilderness.

However, soon the conquerors of the Islamic Khilafah will feed these starving Muslim masses, and wake up the sleeping lions of this Ummah, and redefine 'Umari justice, not through empty words, but through actions, bi'idhnillah.

The first thing that the Muslim woman must do when her children first begin speaking is to teach them the testimony “There is no god but Allah and Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah” along with its meaning.

Among that which is reported from ‘Ali Ibn al-Husayn رض is that he would teach his child, telling him, “Say, ‘I believe in Allah and disbelieve in taghut.’”

(Reported by Ibn Abi Shaybah)

We must have heard about Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam. But did we have a close look on his life? Close look on what made him a nation alone? Why did Allah Subhanahu wa Ta'ala mention his story so many times in the Quran, and why has he been mentioned so times by Messenger of Allah ﷺ? What is the significance of this saying that we are the followers of Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam?

In fact, Allah Subhanahu wa Ta'ala wants us to be firm upon the Millat of Ibrahim and to become the true descendants (ideological) of Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam. Doesn't Allah the Exalted want Ibrahim's progeny to respond the way Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam, responded?

Let's have a close look at his life, what did Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam, do in his life. His life is actually very eventful. He alone challenged the erroneous man-made system of governance of arrogant Namrud who didn't only claim himself to be God literally, but also ruling among people with laws made out of his whims. He was the one broke idols at his young age, thereby challenging the Taghuti system prevalent in his society. He was the prophet who left the example for us that for standing firm upon monotheism and establishing the religion, one may have to be welcomed by hot blazing fire. Then, perhaps the most important incident in his life was when he went to sacrifice his son Isma'il, 'Alayhis Salam, being commanded by Allah the Most High.

Look a little deeper, what greatness is hidden in the life of Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam. He, 'Alayhis Salam, stood alone against Nimrod in his youth, but was later thrown into the fire for Tawheed but was saved by Allah. Then he came to Makkah with his wife. At his old age Allah gave him a son, Isma'il, 'Alayhis Salam, responding to his sincere supplication. Then one of the most amazing things was that he left the infant son Isma'il and his mother Hajera, 'Alayhis Salam, in the dry desert only by the command of Allah and went to another region.

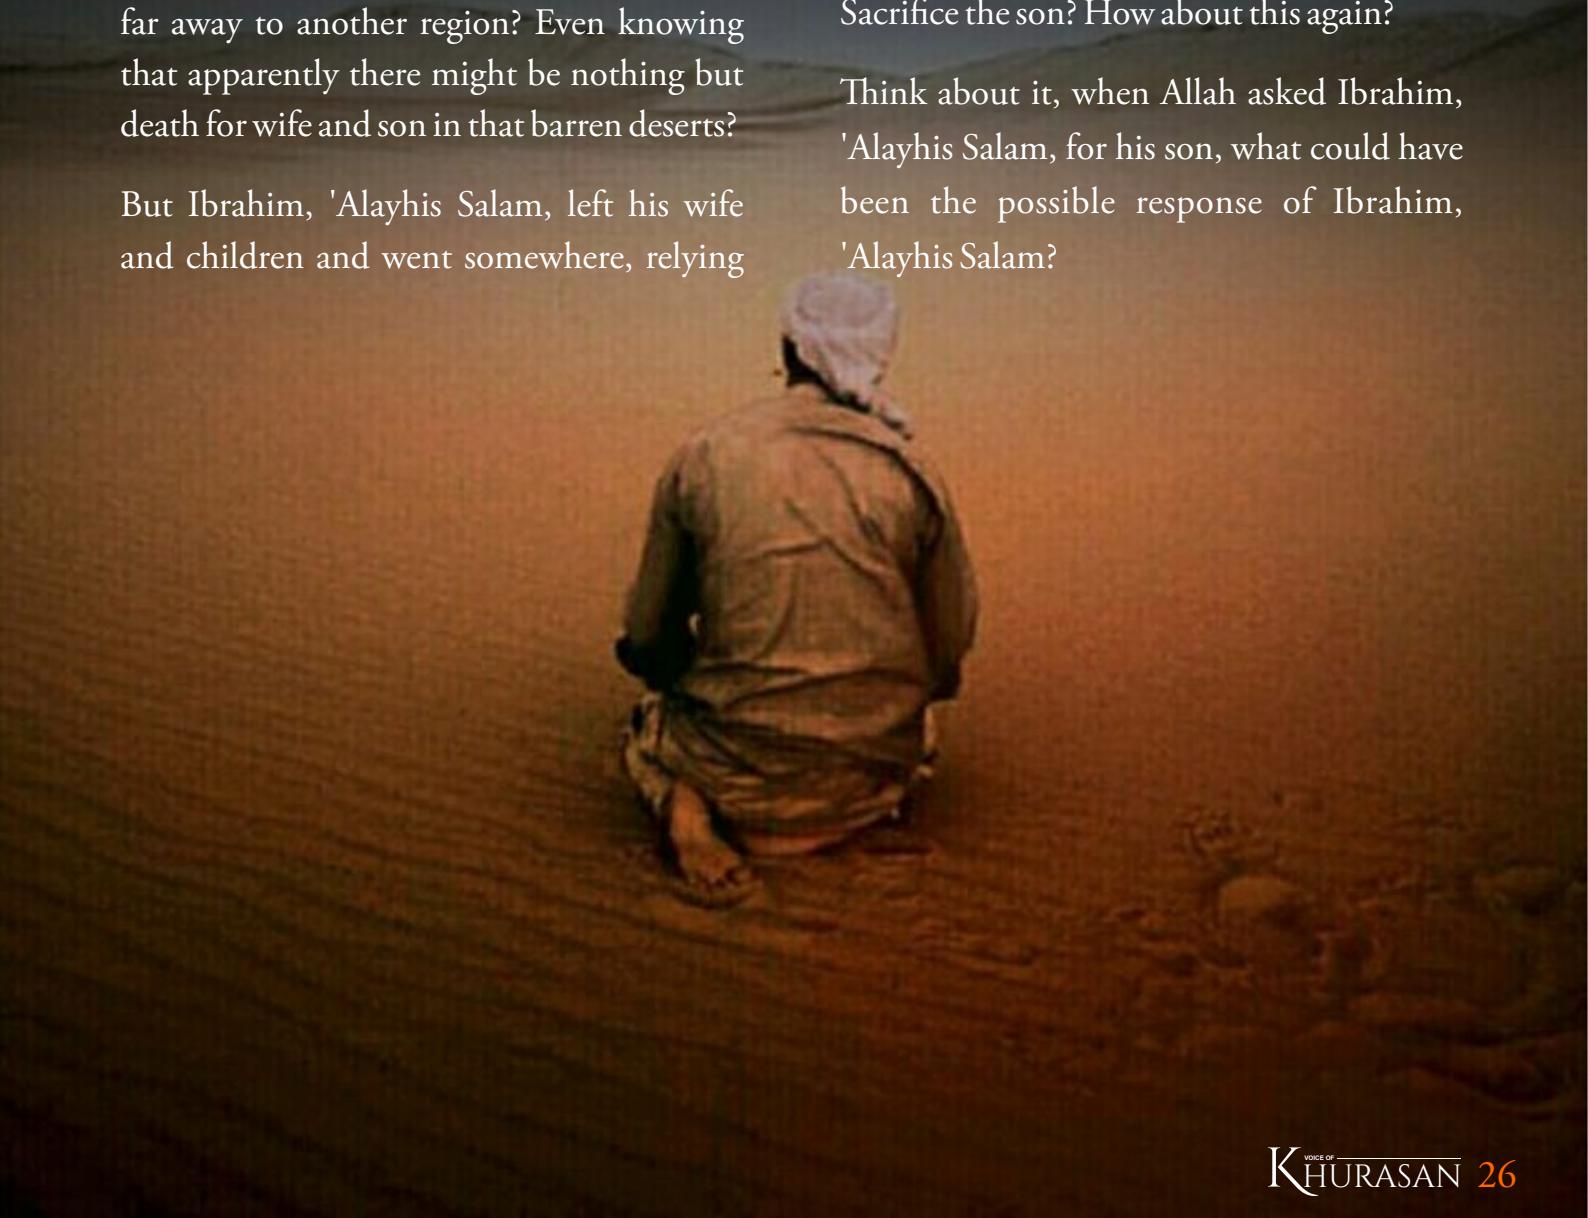

Can we do that? No water, no food? Leave the baby and his mother in the desert and go far away to another region? Even knowing that apparently there might be nothing but death for wife and son in that barren deserts?

But Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam, left his wife and children and went somewhere, relying on Allah only. This is the manifestation of tawakkul on Allah. This is the manifestation of obeying Allah. Being able to forsake one's dearest things at the command of the Most High, despite knowing that darkness is certain ahead. That's the leap of faith, which our beloved Lord seeks in His believing servants.

Anyway, later when Isma'il, 'Alayhis Salam, was a little older, Ibrahim 'Alayhis Salam, came back. Then Allah tested him again. He Azzawajjal informed Ibrahim that he should sacrifice his son. At that moment, the most dear to Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam, was his son. Sacrifice the son? How about this again?

Think about it, when Allah asked Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam, for his son, what could have been the possible response of Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam?

Couldn't Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam, have said, "O Allah, I have sacrificed so much for Islam throughout my life...why do you want my beloved son today?"

"I was thrown into the fire for standing alone against the idolatry of Namrud. Wasn't that enough?"

"Haven't I faced tribulations for inviting people to Tawheed all my life? Isn't that enough?"

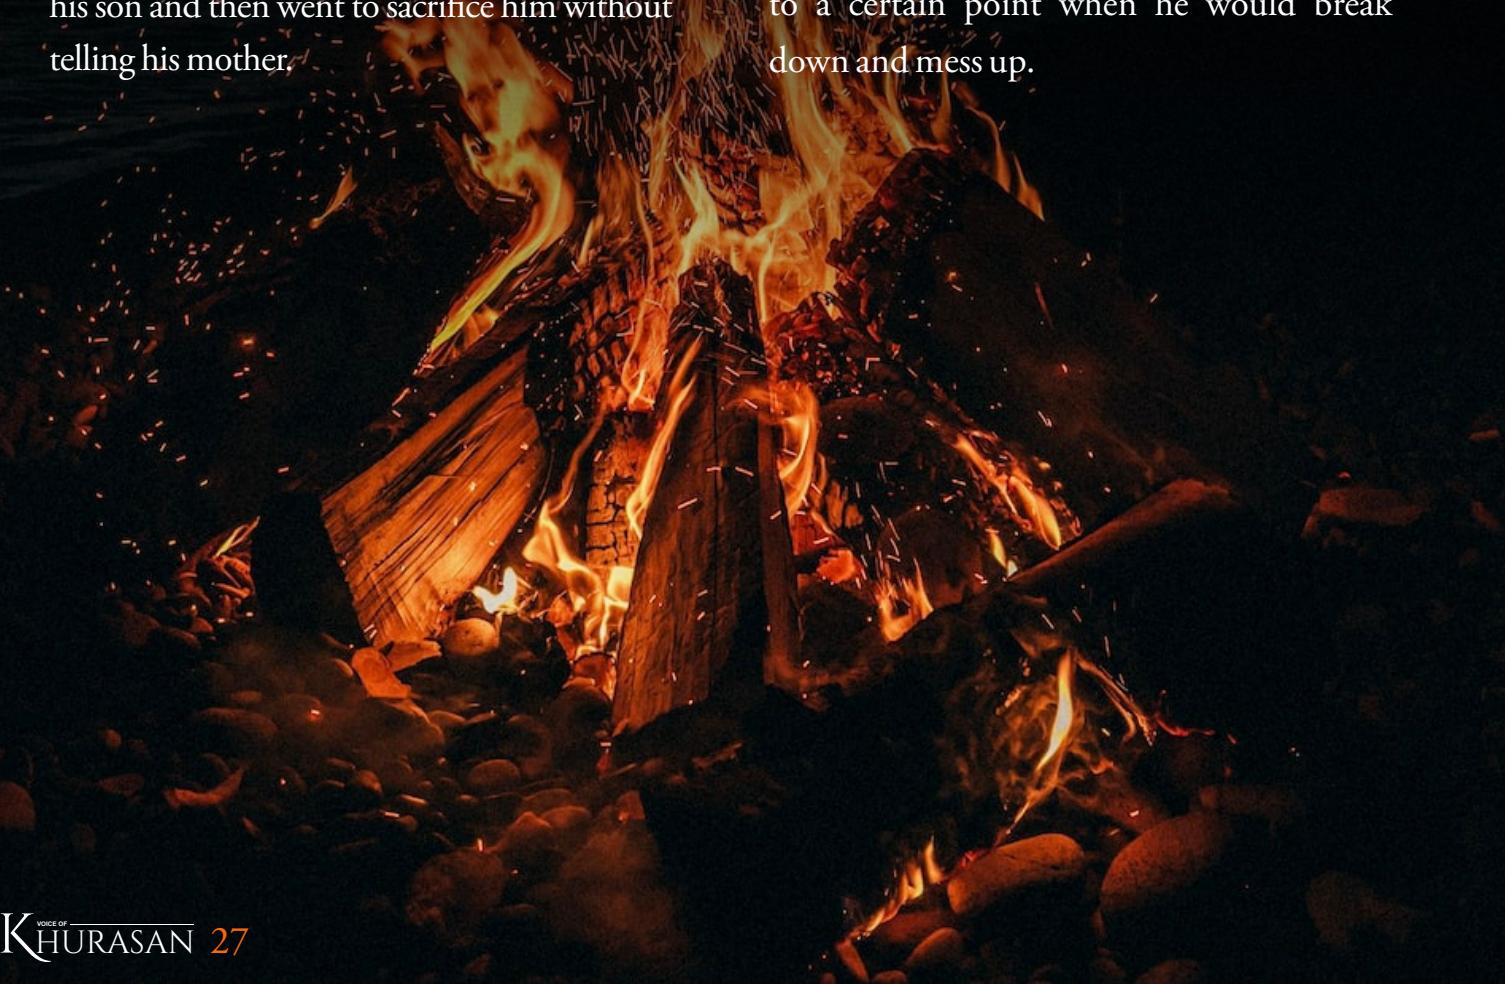

"I left my beloved wife and newborn son in the desert only for you. Is that not enough? Why do you want my son in my old age?"
(Astaghfirullah)

Couldn't Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam, have questioned Allah like this? But he, 'Alayhis Salam, did none of these...whenever he understood the command of Allah, he secretly persuaded his son and then went to sacrifice him without telling his mother.

Can you perceive the mental strength of Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam? Can you imagine how he felt before running a knife in his son's neck? How was he feeling that time? Didn't he think that he was going to sacrifice his beloved one for the sake of Allah? He did not know that Allah would finally put a ram in Isma'il's place, and he would be saved.

Let's see, how Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam, passed that test. He did not lose his son, and it became a history...

The main point here is that Allah Azzawajjal did not actually want the blood of Isma'il, 'Alayhis Salam, rather he wanted to test the sincerity of Ibrahim. Allah wanted to see how much Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam, truly obeyed Him. Ultimate obedience or limited to a certain point when he would break down and mess up.

See, Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam, accepted Allah's command without any argument, rather he had tawakkul and surrendered himself to Allah's commandment.

Allah Subhanahu wa Ta'ala wants the same from the descendants of Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam, that is from us. And Allah always tests us like He tested our predecessors in righteousness, like Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam, and it is for certain. Have we thought that if we say we believe, we would be left, no more tests?

You will see, whenever you enter the sphere of Imaan, you would be tried with your most cherished things, one after another. You should always sacrifice your dearest thing for the sake of Allah, just as Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam did.

Just as Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam, was thrown into fire, we too could be thrown into fire. But when you take the leap of faith, trusting in Allah, just like Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam, you would find that inside the fire is the coolness that Allah has prepared for you.

Just as Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam, left his wife and children in the barren deserts amid fear of apparent destruction, we too might outwardly cast our everything (career, life, possessions, beloved ones, life full of comforts, and so on) into certain destruction. But after leaving them behind, we will see that Allah has protected them all. Did we pass the exam in the meantime?...

Allah may test you till the last moment, Allah may put you in such a situation that either you have to engage in haram or confront yourself with a situation as if this is the end of everything, in exchange of saving Imaan....

Then you have to take a leap of faith like Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam. The world must be put to an end, but you will not indulge in haram or kufr.

But then you will see, from where Allah's help comes. You couldn't even imagine...

Allah's help always preceded by that knife-wielding test, after you take the leap of faith, not before, otherwise it doesn't prove practically that you care about Allah the Most High. Allah will help you in endless ways only after you pass the test.

Millat-e-'Ibrahim means such a Millat, in which the people take the leap of faith by placing their trust solely in Allah. And this is the case with the believers.

While sacrificing for Allah the Exalted, you may think that everything is over, but in fact Allah will give you back everything, just as Isma'il, 'Alayhis Salam, was given back to Ibrahim, 'Alayhis Salam.

So, let's take the decision to take a leap of faith today in the course of sacrifice which is highly needed for the salvation of this dilapidated Ummah...

{Indeed there has been an excellent example for you in Ibrahim and those with him, when they said to their people: "Verily, we are free from you and whatever you worship besides God, we have rejected you, and there has started between us and you, hostility and hatred forever, until you believe in Allah Alone}

[Al-Mumtahanah:4]

LEGACY OF BETRAYAL

We live in a world where not only power and wealth are transmitted from generation to generation, but also slavery and betrayal are inherited. Those, following in the footsteps of the traitors of yesterday, have nothing to offer you other than treachery today. They spared none in their dirty business of treachery, not even themselves. But unfortunately the lowly traitors have been assigned as the captain of the ship named "Islamic ummah". These are the vile puppets of the disbelievers, who have been inflicted upon the ummah for nothing but the sin of abandoning obligatory jihad and preferring humiliation, in exchange of worldly gains. These are the ones who have inherited the legacy of building dunya, destroying their akhirah, and polluting the society of the Muslims accordingly, although on the Day of Reckoning they won't bear the sinful burden of the multitudes who followed them in transgressions. And enough as transgression is being silent amid transgression by the tyrants.

The 21st century marked its beginning with a bizarre event- the plot of paving the way for the establishment of a Jewish state in the heart of Middle East by the tremendous support of the Crusaders. Contrarily, if we look at the pre-Islamic history of the geopolitical situation in this region, the Christians and the Jews had a relation not any sweeter than the "snake and mongoose relation". But with the advent of Islam, they gradually started filling the gaps in their hostile relations, and many centuries passed in this process of complete de-escalation between these disbelieving nations for the sole of purpose of eliminating Islam from the face of earth. Finally, 21st century witnessed unprecedented collaboration between Jews and Christians for achieving the greater objective of establishing the Dajjali "One World Order" against the spread of Islam- the true religion prescribed by Allah the Almighty for human being for no purpose other than their own benefit.

The First World War was fought for destroying the Ottoman Empire which was the last obstacle in the way of allowing Jewish settlements in the blessed land of Palestine, although we don't say that the Ottoman rule fully conformed to Shari'ah, since on many occasions we see the Ottomans indulging in shirk and innovations, and that was the reason they were devoid of Allah's nusrah in defending the religion in the end. When Ottomans were defeated and ousted from Palestine, the British Crusaders left this land for the Jews to come and settle here. They started to forcefully establish their so called paternal right on this land, although all lands belong to Allah Azzawajjal and He has promised to give them to His righteous slaves. However, later with the passing of time, another conspiracy resurfaced: the neo Zio-Crusaderist alliance which never confined its objective within the limited geographical boundary of Israel, rather it has been devising a blueprint of the establishment of the so called "Greater Israel" which would engulf the whole of the Middle East (as per its plan), and this ominous process is still going on whether you turn a blind eye to it or not.

Such a sinister blueprint marks the age of neo-colonialization by the Zio-Crusaderist alliance in Muslim lands. Again, the people of upon falsehood always put aside their difference of interests when it comes to countering the dominance of truth (Islam), despite the fact that their hearts have been shattered into thousand pieces on account of enmity towards each other due to their preference of disbelief over faith. However, this Zio-Crusaderist featured neo-colonialization isn't necessarily manifested by physical invasion of capturing a piece of land, rather by entangling the land to be captured in the dark webs of socio-economic invasion and thereby setting loyal puppets in those lands or turning the already existing tyrants into their loyal bootlickers. And this is what happening silently in the Middle East. So worse than this is expected to happen in the near future, unless the Almighty plans otherwise. {But they plan, and Allah plans. And Allah is the best of planners} [Quran 8:30]

And now, the Arab states have featured unprecedented display of humiliation by acting upon US brokered "Abraham Accords" which has lowered them to the disgrace of officially accepting the Zionist state of Israel and bolstering official ties with this criminal state, forgetting their decades of atrocities towards Muslims in the blessed land of Palestine and overlooking the warning of the Lord of the worlds, although- most interestingly- the puppet rulers of these Arab states kept politicizing the Palestine issue for decades. Truly, those devoid of faith are devoid of shame as well. The US state department stated regarding Abraham Accord: "We warmly welcome and are encouraged by the progress already made in establishing diplomatic relations between Israel and its neighbors in the region under the principles of the Abraham Accords. We are encouraged by the ongoing efforts to consolidate and expand such friendly relations based on shared interests and a shared commitment to a better future." Hence, better future can't be guaranteed unless human beings are ruled by the divine laws (Shari'ah), for it is devised by the Lord of the Worlds, Who knows better about proper management of His creation. Hence, such poisonous sweet terms "better future" has been used by the Crusaders only for deceiving Muslims and throwing them into another dungeon of humiliation at the hands of the Crusaders, when they won't even know that they are undergoing another western occupation. Lets include a short story (imaginary) regarding this ongoing scenario in the Muslim lands:

Lets think of a bakery wherein are many sweet products. The US asked the Soviet Union about what did they do when they invaded Afghanistan during 1980s.

Soviet Union: "We took out biscuits, cakes, sweets, donuts, etc. from the bakery.

"US: "You are nothing more than a stupid. When we entered the bakery (i.e. invaded Afghanistan), we took out all sugar from it so that no sweet products can be made." Yes, the sugar in the Muslims is their Imaan. When Imaan is taken out, there would be no resistance against the infidels in true sense.

Getting back to our topic, after UAE, Bahrain has been taking some attempts of strengthening ties with Israel by allowing them to open embassy in their country under the pretext of increasing economic ties with the [Muslim's] bloodthirsty Zionists, and thereby pursuing so called mutual benefits for both the countries. Hence, it is to be noted that the infidel West and their

Do not take the
for your allies.

allies hardly invaded a land without preparing ground for it under the pretext of some sort of economic relations with those lands to be invaded. Actually, this ummah in the history always paid huge price of making alliance with the infidels through building economic ties with them, and that is why our Lord the Most High warned us against alliance with those who play the role of friends and enemies both at the same time, in His saying: {O you who have believed! Do not take the Jews and the Christians for your allies. They are the allies of each other. And among you he who takes them for allies, shall be regarded as one of them} [Quran 5: 51], and in His saying: {And the Jews will not be pleased with you, nor the Christians until you follow their religion} [Quran 2: 120]

Prior to this disgraceful chapter of the ummah, decades past when the Muslims were deceived by the Tawagheet rulers about their pseudo-enmity towards the Zionists. During that period, they staged the drama of not officially acknowledging Israel as a state, not because of their Islamic identity which never permits them to acknowledge the Zionist state, but because of their shirki Arab nationalism which was also inherited by them from their western masters and because of the inherent enmity of the Muslims towards the Jews as far as they remain within the domain of Islam. And this made the Zio-Crusaderist West to resort to progressive planning for playing with the mind of the Muslims, while they subjected them to ultimate level of deterioration in terms of Aqeedah (creed), and their decades of sincere efforts have finally yielded a numb generation in the Arab lands, to whom alliance with the Jews is not really a matter of concern.

However, the US state department also claimed the following regarding their so called tolerance with different beliefs: "We seek tolerance and respect for every person in order to make this world a place where all can enjoy a life of dignity and hope, no matter their race, faith or ethnicity." Actually, they have tolerance with all the people except with the Muslims, and if you ponder over how they dealt with Muslims in different countries in the name of their so called "War on Terror", you can clearly presume how dangerous their animosity would be, while their tolerance have taken such a heavy toll of Muslims' life, wealth, and honor throughout the past few decades! That is why it is said, if-being a Muslim- you make friendship with the US (i.e. infidels), you won't be in need of an enemy for ensuring your total destruction. Undoubtedly, their tolerance can be clearly manifested by the continuous desecration of Masjid al-Aqsa and other Islamic values and the systematic genocide of the Muslims in Palestine at the hands of the Zionists for decades. And the living witness of their tolerance are the women and children in Al-Hol camp of Sham and numerous muwahhid brothers in the prisons in different countries, let alone those who died in different lands of the Muslims due the courtesy of their tolerance (!) in form of rain of precision guided munitions, although they (the infidel West and its allies) are the one to be raising voice utmost high against extra-judicial killings and human rights, and blah blah blah!

So, it is well understood what the Zio-Crusadarist West is trying to pursue in the Arab countries by subjecting Muslims to the shirk of Abraham Accords. Actually, they pursue nothing but removing the remnants of Muslims' zeal for protecting their religion. But again:

{...they plan, and Allah plans. And Allah is the best of planners}

[Al-Anfal:30]

...and this plan of Allah the Almighty will- surely- make the Jews and the Christians remorse thinking about their years of tireless efforts for extinguishing the light of truth (Islam) in the end, for our beloved Prophet ﷺ has given us the glad tiding of our overpowering the Jews, in his saying:

"You will fight with the Jews till some of them will hide behind stones. The stones will (betray them) saying, 'O `Abdullah (i.e. slave of Allah)! There is a Jew hiding behind me; so kill him.'" [Bukhari- 2925]

TRULY,
HISTORY
REPEATS ITSELF

ISLAM HAS ALWAYS BEEN AT WAR WITH THE
MUSHRIKEEN

As our Islamic history is vast and long and could and would fill up libraries, we have chosen to ponder over some small portions of it for relating it to our today's struggles, for, being Muslims, we should learn about our past with a view to understanding our current position so that we may decide upon the direction towards which we should go.

When we actually step back and look at the conflicts against Islam today and overlap it with those of the past, we can see an alarming scenario: Islam has always been at war with the mushrikeen (polytheists) and will continue this war until the Day of Judgement, so the notion that we will stop fighting this never ending war with the kuffar is purely mythical much like leprechauns and unicorns!! The only difference with 1400 years ago and today is the weapons and means adopted by the believers for establishing the religion, because our Islamic history has taught us not to be concerned about being outnumbered by the enemies or about the advance weapons and sophisticated technologies with them, rather we should truly rely on Allah Azzawajjal for success after adopting the best means within our capabilities. Allah the Most High says:

{Remember' when you cried out to your Lord for help, He answered, "I will reinforce you with a thousand angels followed by many others." And Allah made this a sign of victory and reassurance to your hearts. Victory comes only from Allah. Surely Allah is Almighty, All-Wise}

[Al-Anfal: 9-10]

In our history, Islam was threatened many times; we were fair with terms and just with people but when lines of boundaries were crossed, our response to that was by swords not by dialogue!!! The promise of Allah the Exalted remains the same till this day... However, the cowardly ones of the Ummah have poisoned the water, although they claim to love Allah the Exalted and the Messenger ﷺ more than anything, but at the slightest hint into jihad or fighting or donating or even making dua for the mujahidin, they can't help exposing their true hypocritical color.

Our history is filled with countless battles; around 25 of them are mostly notable, such as Battle of Badr, Battle of Uhud etc... This was a time when believers were strong believers who would rush to the battlefield and be sad if not martyred, and the same series is still going on, regardless of the multitudes of blames by the accusers!!!

Leaders of neighbouring Muslim lands would aid in different campaigns against the kuffar without any hesitation; it was their duty and obligation, so they were more happy to fulfill their duty to Allah Subhana wa Ta'ala than to stay behind and talk bad about believers.

In the glorious chapters of our history, we had vast lands, while disbelievers would surrender their lands to the Muslims without shedding of a single drop of blood, but because of the fear of the Muslims in their hearts, and that was a golden time when even the Jews and the Christians would want to be tried in the Shari'ah courts, for they were assured about getting more justice than their own man-made judiciary systems whose basis was their fallible whim. That was the time when the honour of the Religion and that of our righteous predecessors were paramount; if a kafir insulted a sister or even touched her, retaliation would be swift. Nowadays men prefer to take videos while their sister is getting abused by the filthy Israeli Defence Forces, and when they are asked, "Why don't you do anything?", the answer is always the same, "What can we do?"!!!

OUR HISTORY IS FILLED WITH COUNTLESS
BATTLES

Turn the pages of history and open the chapter of the Battle of Hittin in the year 1187, when Salahuddin Ayubi رض vowed to execute the Crusader General Raynald of Chatillion for harassing and robbing caravans on their way to hajj, and lastly Raynald insulted our beloved Prophet صلی اللہ علیہ وسالہ and that was enough for Salahuddin. The Crusaders outnumbered them, but Salahuddin's army defeated them, and captured Raynald. Allah Azzawajjal had given Salahuddin the chance to fulfill his vow, so he executed this filthy kafir. It is to be noted that even at this time the Muslims and the Crusaders had a truce, which was broken by the later, very much like what we see the Zionist filths doing today.

The point of the Salahuddin's story was to show our response which was completely in accordance with Islam. We had a truce. Yes, but once it was broken, what did Salahuddin do? Did he call for dialogue like these murtadd rulers of today? No. Did he say we to get back to the negotiating table? No. Did he rely on the enemies of Islam to broker

DID HE CALL FOR DIALOGUE LIKE THESE
MURTADD

deals? No. Rather he stuck to what our Islamic history taught us, that is to strike the necks of the disbelievers for regaining honour and prestige.

Our Islamic history is beautiful and inspiring, so we should teach not only ourselves but also our next generations, before they forget. When we see our brothers bearing that beautiful black flag of Tawheed on the battlefield yelling "Allahu Akbar," rushing towards the enemies of Islam, it truly gives us a look into history repeating itself. They are the exact copy of the believers of the past; the only difference is that the swords have been replaced by Kalashnikovs, and no matter whether believers hold swords in their hands on horses or hold Kalashnikovs and wreck havoc on the enemies; the taqwa and emaan are exactly the same!! This is how the true believers function in every age, as Allah Azzawajjal says:

Those who have faith fight in the way of Allah, while those who disbelieve fight in the way of taghut (Satan). Fight, then, against the fellows of Satan. Surely Satan's strategy is weak} [An-Nisa: 76]

THE REALITY OF DEMOCRACY

THEORY

Some so called moderate Muslims purports that democracy is derived from Islam. By this they want to legitimatize this modern form of shirk, giving an Islamic color to it. However, democracy is not an Arabic word, rather a Greek one in terms of origin. It consists of two terms: 'demos', meaning people and 'cratia', meaning rule. Therefore, the word democracy means - rule of the people.

Democracy is in complete contradiction with Islam. In this political system, the authority of legislation is vested in the hands of the people or their appointed representatives (members of Taghuti parliament). Therefore, the rule of Gairullah (false deities worshipped other than Allah) has been established through this polytheistic theory, in form of the rule of the people or their representatives.

REALITY

HOMOSEXUALITY

This is as per the apparent polytheistic theory the disbelievers devised in the name of democracy, but while in practice, the authority lies in the transgressing heads of the society for mass subjugation.

However, it is not necessary for all representatives of the people to agree on a matter in this system. Rather, opinion of the majority prevails, even though that goes against divine laws, sound intellect or fitrah (natural disposition upon which human beings were created). For example, laws against abortion, in favor of homosexuality, usury, intoxication etc. have been promulgated under this system. Shari'ah has been abrogated. And Islam and Muslims are resisted through this system. On the other hand, Allah the Exalted forbade others from sharing in His rule and said that there is no better lawgiver than Him, in the saying of the Most High: {You worship not besides Him except [mere] names you have named them, you and your fathers, for which Allah has sent down no authority. Legislation is not but for Allah. He has commanded that you worship not except Him. That is the correct religion, but most of the people do not know} [Yusuf: 40] Allah Ta'ala also says: {Is not Allah the Most Just of judges} [At-Tin: 08] He the Almighty also says: {Say, "Allah is most knowing of how long they remained. He has [knowledge of] the unseen [aspects] of the heavens and the earth. How Seeing is He and how Hearing! They have not besides Him any protector, and He shares not His legislation with anyone} [Al-Kahf: 26] He Azzawajjal also said: {Then is it the judgement of [the time of] ignorance they desire? But who is better than Allah in judgement for a people who are certain [in faith]} [Al-Maidah: 50]

ALLAH IS THE CREATOR OF ALL CREATION

Allah is the Creator of all creation. He knows what provision and guiding principles are suitable for them, while people don't necessarily share the same level of conscience, behavior, and habits. And man does not know what is good for him and what is bad; So, how can he decide upon the same for others! Therefore, if men are left to their own choices for deciding upon their way of life, that results in nothing but chaos, immorality, and corruption in the society.

Nevertheless, in the so called democratic societies, the rule of people is nothing more than a slogan; Which has no reality. The purpose of this slogan is to deceive people and subjugate them. In fact, the heads of these so called democratic societies and their affiliates are the real rulers and the people are nothing more than their slaves financing their whims and luxuries. And this bitter truth is well evident when you see them trampling any part of this shirki system that goes against the interests of the rulers. Election rigging, loss of freedom of speech, and so on, all these are known to all; No evidence is needed, just as people find no difficulties in differentiating between day and night.

Parliamentary Democracy

It is a democratic form of government in which the people govern through an assembly formed by elected representatives of the people. In this system, the people have the right to directly intervene in the governing process in certain cases. Those processes include

1. Voting: Some members of the public propose detailed or summary bills of any law. The parliamentary committee then deliberates and votes on it.
2. Referendum: To submit a law after approval by parliament to express the verdict of the people.
3. Non-voting: The right to put objection against a law by a number of people prescribed by the constitution within a specified period of time after its promulgation. So this objection can be resolved through referendum. If the majority of voters are in favor of 'Yes' regarding a law, then it is enacted. And if there are more voters in favor of 'No', then it is rejected. At present, almost all constitutions are following this rule. There is no doubt that democratic governance is a newly developed way of associating partners with Allah in terms of obedience to Him and His legislative authority. Because in this process the sole right of Allah as Creator to legislate is undermined and given to the creature.

Freedom or destruction

Many people think that democracy has been devised for ensuring freedom! This is a misconception. Although 'freedom' is an empty chant raised by beholders of the democratic system, what it implies are: freedom of belief, freedom of gender, freedom of expression, and so on. These have many negative effects on the society. The so called freedom is misused to such an extent that even the honorable position of our beloved Messenger ﷺ is attacked, in addition to other Islamic values. In democracy, the evildoing disbelievers and apostates exercise the right to mock Islam and Muslims, while the Muslims are not left with the freedom of expressing what the fundamental principles of Islam demands from them: expressing dissociation with the kuffar and the system of kufr. So, it is understood that the so called freedom for which democracy was devised at the first place is a partial freedom, not a freedom to all. It is the freedom depending on the secular doctrines of the rulers of the democratic societies, who use democracy for nothing but materializing their whims and maintaining firm control over the people. In democracy, honorable positions of Messenger ﷺ, the Qur'an and the Companions are attacked regularly in the name of freedom of expression. Besides, in the name of freedom, what are being promoted in the society are vices, such as lewdness, promiscuity, obscenity, blasphemy of Islamic values, and so on. Promoters of drunkenness and nudity are encouraged, while those enjoining good and forbidding evil are resisted. Moral corruption and frustration have reached the threshold. Thus the list keeps getting larger. And such man-made system has been exclusively enforced in the societies of the Muslims for destroying their Aqeedah (creed). Eventually, the freedom that various countries of the world call for under the guise of democratic rule is not the same freedom in all cases. Rather, it is tied to the chain of interests and instincts.

If the infidels were really calling for freedom, why don't they allow sincere Muslims to take the decision of being ruled by Shari'ah of Allah. Why do they colonialize the countries of the Muslims? Why do they take steps to change the Aqeedah of the Muslims? Did they abide by this freedom of speech and religion, when they were perpetrating a mass slaughter on the Muslims in Libya? Where was this freedom when France was carrying out mass-carnage in Algeria or the Italians were carrying out massacres in Egypt or when the Americans were carrying out a systematic cleansing operation in Afghanistan and Iraq?

In regards to the claimants of these freedoms, such so called freedom is chained by some man-made laws and social customs. For instance, no person has the right to walk or drive on the road against the direction of normal traffic. None can open a shop without license. If he says I am free, the people in authority won't allow him to do so. Similarly, none can attend mourning for a dead person wearing party dress, since it is against social custom. So, people may dictate the freedom and restrictions of other people, but in a democratic society, people don't accept that the Lord of the worlds should dictate their affairs. They don't allow Islam to forbid harmful things for them, like intoxication, fornication, immodesty, eating pork etc. But if any restriction comes from the Tawagheet rulers of democracy, they simply hear and obey.

Does democracy resembles Shura in Islam?

However, some people think that the word democracy is synonymous with the word 'Shura' in Islam. This is wrong for many reasons, as follows:

1. Shura or consultation is done on a matter, on which there is no clear evidence in Quran and Sunnah. On the other hand, the irrefutable issues of religion are also discussed in the "rule of the people". Then the haram of Allah is not declared as haram, and not halal as halal. These are the irrefutable matters about which rulings are already present in Quran and Sunnah. But, in democracy, people subject these matters to the decision of the so called representatives of the people in the parliament. But should there be any choice for us, the fallible creation, to have a choice on a matter about which Allah the Almighty has already revealed a ruling?

2. The Shura in Islam consists of individuals with proper knowledge of the principles of fiqh and the other peripheral principles of Islam. And more importantly, they need to be believers with sound intellect and wisdom at first, to decide upon the general matters of the Muslims. Consulting with an infidel or an apostate is far beyond consideration. In a democratic parliament, on the other hand, the aforementioned qualities have no consideration. An infidel, corrupt, and stupid one can also become a member of parliament for legislating laws. So, how can parliament resemble Islamic Shura council?!

3. The Islamic ruler is not obliged to accept the opinion of the majority of the members of Shura on a matter about which there is no mention in Quran and Sunnah. Perhaps, he may prefer the opinion of a particular member based on a stronger evidence in support of his opinion. Ironically, on the other hand, in a democratic system, law is legislated by the decision of the majority and laymen are made bound to obey this.

Taliban Rule and Democracy

Taliban is a heretical fighting faction who possessed not any higher designation than a militia in the past and now the West has entrusted the power of Afghanistan with a view to hitting multiple targets with a single shot.

Firstly, the Crusaders found Taliban as the pioneers of modern jihad and currently the owners of empty pledge of allegiance by different so called jihadi organizations around the globe. So, the infidels decided to tame these wild beasts (Taliban) for corrupting the notion of jihad in this age of globalization.

Secondly, the Crusaders found it easier to lure this militia into their trap, since this militia doesn't emphasize upon sound Islamic Aqeedah of Tawheed.

Thirdly, the West wanted to implement an encrypted version of democracy in the name of Islam in the soil of Afghanistan and make tribal masses of this country more habituated to secular western doctrines through the implementation of the Taliban version of democratic Islam. Taliban on one hand, uphold empty chants of Islamic Shari'ah, and on the other hand, they are corrupting the Aqeedah of the people by the shirk of both the poors (shrines, grave worshipping etc.) and that of the riches (democracy). You can be skeptical that Taliban seem not to be implementing democracy, but what they are talking about or at least being forced into in exchange of international recognition is the establishment of an all-inclusive government in

ANTRAAFGHANISTAN TALIBAN'S BROTHER

Afghanistan through intra-Afghan dialogues which will host all Afghans, irrespective of their religious identities, rather with the only identity that they are Afghans. Therefore, the Taliban are playing the role of the patronizers of both the shirk of man-made law and the shirk of nationalism.

Finally, this deviant bootlickers of the West have been deployed for the safeguarding of the secular western system against the ever increasing threats of the Islamic State. So, this polytheistic militia is like a defensive wall erected against conquest of the soldiers of the Khilafah who have been striving for cleansing the lands off the filths of kufr and shirk.

Therefore, it is upon the Muslims to obey the political system of their own religion, to put their trust solely in their Lord that He the Almighty is the Best Disposer of affairs for them. Such reliance upon Allah is sufficient for their salvation in this world and the Hereafter, while abiding by the freedom of nafs in form of all tantras and mantras leads human beings to nothing but destruction, and you can see the example of it well evident in todays corrupted societies which are ruled by the decision of the majority.

Moreover, being believers in what Allah and His Messenger ﷺ have brought, it is an obligation upon the Musilms that they should not only reject such system of batil (democracy), but also declare enmity towards this Taghuti system both through words and actions, accepting only Allah as the Lord, Islam as the way of Allah, Muhammad ﷺ as the Messenger. Otherwise, they will not be able to answer to the questions that will be asked by the angels in their graves:

Who is your Lord? Which one is your Deen (religion)? Who is your Messenger?)

Finally, we pray to Allah to strengthen us through Islam and to keep us steadfast in thwarting the machinations of Shaytan and his allies. Ameen.

O MUSLIMS IN EAST TURKISTAN!

WE HAVE NOT FORGOTTEN YOU

-by Abu Maher al-Tajik

All praise is due to Allah. We praise Him and seek help from Him. I bear witness that there is no deity worthy of worship except Allah and that Prophet Muhammad ﷺ is His servant and Messenger.

As for what follows

As the Sino Japanese war ended in 1945, it left the East Asian region in a state of four years long civil war. With the Chinese communist party emerging victorious and succeeding to the throne of China, the Muslims were about to be subjected to the worst and the most horrific persecution at the hands of the atheists. Let's take a look at the advent of Islam in this region and what the Uyghur Muslims are being subjected to for saying "My Lord is Allah".

Arrival of Islam in this Region

615 AD marked the beginning of Islam in China, when four companions of Prophet Muhammad ﷺ made a tour to China for da'wah and trading purposes. Later in 651 during the reign of the third Khalifah Hazrat Uthman ؓ, a mission led by Hazrat Sa'ad bin abi Waqqas (ra) was sent to the Tang dynasty. They were warmly welcomed and the foundation for the construction of Huaisheng mosque was laid. It is believed to be the first mosque in East Asia. However, the spread of Islam took pace when Chagatayid Khan Tughluq Timur apparently reverted to Islam and his son conquered Qocho. Similarly during the Mongol era, Islam spread in the region at great pace, although its sole credit can't be given to the Mongols who, on many occasions, didn't rule by the Shari'ah of Allah.

Uyghur Muslims

The people of Xinjiang region were those among whom Islam gained most popularity in this part of the world. Being also known as East Turkistan, it is a vast barren rugged mountainous area situated in the North Western China. The blessing of Tawheed was bestowed upon a large population in this area by Allah Azzawajjal, the Lord of the heavens and the earth. These people are widely known as Uyghur Muslims. They are a Turkic ethnic group native to Xinjiang region. China officially accepts them as one of the total 55 minorities, however the crimes of the communists against these innocent brothers and sisters in faith are so vile that even a mere thought of them is terrific enough to enrage the ummah against the steamroller of oppression they have been subjected to, given that the ummah is an awaken one, not one lost in the sleep of ignorance and carelessness.

Alas!!! The ummah, whom Allah preferred over other ummat, has turned a blind eye to them.

Alas!!! The ummah, whom Allah honored through the seal of Prophets ﷺ, has forgotten them.

To Allah we complain about the cynical silence and from Him we seek help.

Uyghur Muslims' struggle for an Islamic State

The Uyghur Muslims were given deep insight by their Rabb. They understood that mankind has to be ruled by what Allah has revealed in His Book. And they knew the rewards that the Almighty has promised the believers with. So in an attempt to free their lands from oppressors and spread the light of Tawheed in this part of the world, the sincere Uyghur Muslims took up arms against the Chinese kuffar in 1933. Although this campaign was halted in 1934 resulting in the massacre of nearly 8000 Uyghur Muslims (according to the available report), this could not stop the brothers from striving in the way of Allah. So they resumed their blessed struggle in 1944. Allah gave them success, as they established the Shari'ah of Allah wherever upon the earth their authority was established. The earth was being ruled by Allah's law and hudud (Shari'ah's) were being implemented. Eventually, such a situation was deemed as a threat to communism by the enemies of Allah. As the Chinese communist party gained power on the 1st of October, 1949, they unleashed every ruthless tactic and every form of oppression they could get hold of for extinguishing the light of Allah, while Allah refuses except to perfect His light although the disbelievers dislike it.

Chinese Oppression

Thus the Chinese atheists began to record history of oppression, the example of which has not been witnessed by mankind in this age. They were oppressing Muslims because they said "There is no God but Allah". Muslims were thrown into concentration camps. Children were being separated from parents. Kuffar laid their hands on the honor of Muslim women. Persecution became a routine exercise for the communists on the Muslims.

Going for hajj was banned till 1979. Women were not allowed to wear hijab. Muslims were forced to eat food in Ramadan during the days. They even tried to modify the words of Adhan. They were even forced to eat pork. Every family of Muslims has been forced to a host a Chinese atheist who would spy on them to make sure that the Uyghur Muslims don't have religious devotion anymore. They monitored every move and word of Muslims through cameras even in those gigantic incarceration cells. They are even forced to install apps in their phone so that the Chinese government can monitor their online and offline activities. The lunatic level of mass surveillance and mass control has reached such a level that even knives in the kitchen are welded with shackles and fixed with the wall so that they can't carry the knives with them for stabbing the kafir communists outside their homes. And such a picture only demonstrates immense cowardliness of the Chinese atheists. However, if anyone with the following reasons were found in Xinjiang, he would be detained by hell hounds of communists:

- Travelling or contacting one of the 26 countries that China considered “sensitive”.
- Attending mosques
- Texting with Quranic verses, and so on...

Eventually, the mere reason for which Muslims were and still are being subjected to their cruelty is none other than following the religion of Allah.

In the beginning, China denied the presence of any such mass concentration camps (prison cells) till 2018. Finally, it accepted that there are some “vocational and educational camps” whose sole aim was to “educate” Muslims. But in those camps, the sincere slaves of Allah were enforced to:

- Renounce Islam and pledge loyalty for CCP
- Sing for the well being of communism
- Learn Mandarin, Chinese Law and vocational skills

Such hardline policy against Islam by the communist government has been reverberated through the words of the Chinese Taghut Xi Jingpin, in his saying: "Islam in China should be Chinese in orientation." This disastrous state of our brother continues till this day. And if one would see what happened to the Uyghur Muslims' population, he would easily understand the depth of their miserable condition. According to a consensus held in 2014, the population of Uyghur Muslims was 22.3 million. However it reduced to around 11 million in 2019. In 2014, the Chinese government incarcerated nearly a million Uyghur Muslims in concentration camps, and this is the largest mass incarceration since World War Two, about which the disbelievers of the West resorted to bizarre silence, although we see them boasting about their concerns of human rights, freedom of thoughts, and so on. 16000 mosques have been demolished or razed. Hundreds of thousands of children have been separated from their parents. And the statistical data depicting oppression on the Uyghur Muslims kept on soaring. And there is no power and might except Allah.

However, if we look upon the indifference of the Taghuti rulers who have settled their dirty feet in the countries of the Muslims for alleviating the pain of Uyghur Muslims, we would be certainly astonished to see how they can sarcastically claim themselves to be the leaders of the Muslims and become so void of zeal regarding the matters of the ummah at the same time. We can clearly see the ongoing strengthening of ties with the Chinese infidels not only in the Middle East, but also in other countries of the Muslims, to the extent that you will see mentally retarded murtadd scholars for dollars labelling Uyghur Muslims as Yajooj Majooj with a view to becoming closer to the Chinese atheists. And the ever increasing friendship of the jihad claiming Taliban Emirate with the Chinese atheists is barely hidden to anyone. So, for the oppressed Uyghur Muslims, the only hope lies with the soldiers of Allah.

Our message to the Chinese atheists

Wait for the torment ahead, O enemies of Allah!! Expect no mercy from us, not even mere offer of peace. Let go of your thoughts of security. For by Allah we promise you that soon you will be confronted by an army to whom more dearer is death in the course of maximizing your corpses than comfortable life witnessing you being increased in oppression against their brethren in faith. So we give you glad tidings of the wrath of Allah at the hands of the soldiers of Allah whose hobbies are shedding your blood and scattering your limbs. Neither your economy as strong as spider's web nor the multitudes of your soldiers can protect you from our revenge, bi'idhnillah. Soon, we shall flood your streets with your blood. Running will not benefit you, hiding will not save you, nor will you be able to daydream of peace. Chaos awaits you. Clouds of terror will cover your skies and your blood will soak your thirsty land just like rainfall soaks the earth after drought. By Allah, we will destroy your empire of tyranny from east to west and from

Remember, we never forget, never forgive!

And we will continue to fight you until the Word of Allah is the highest and His law is enforced from where the sun rises to where it sets.

Message for the Chinese Government

And as for what concerns the leaders of the atheists, cowardly Xi Jinping and Li Zuocheng, glad tidings to you, O enemies of Allah, for the nights of sound sleep shall not accompany you anymore, and Beijing will soon fall on your heads, In Sha Allah. You have already seen how we quenched our thirst for your blood in Kabul where the murtadd Taliban militia could not protect 30 citizens of yours who became prey to the lions of Khilafah. And our brethren's breasts are healed every time your blood is shed. So this flow will continue to the end, bi'idhnillah. And the flames of war will soon reach your doorsteps, terrorizing you from Hong Kong to Harbin. And these watch dogs, upon whom you have put your trust solely, will soon disappoint you through competing with each other in running away from the soldiers of Allah, In Shaa Allah. The technology you boast about will be used against you for destroying your safe houses, for the soldiers of the Islamic State are the descendants of the Companions. We shall return to you the battles like Badr and Yarmouk, In Shaa Allah. So die in your rage. And the day of worldly reckoning is near, In Sha Allah, while the ultimate reckoning in the Hereafter remains, and the soldiers of Allah will show no respite to you, O disbelieving ones. So wait indeed we are waiting with you. And the final outcome is for the righteous.

And our final prayer is all praise is due to Allah the Lord of worlds.

However, the Crusaders and their murtadd allies know with certainty that there is not an army in the world that is able to continue in a battle whose losses are greater than its ability to compensate, and whose duration is longer than its strength to hold out and persist, and if that weren't the case, the Crusader American army wouldn't have felt compelled to retreat, leaving Iraq defeated and expelled after what it encountered at the hands of the mujahidin, and due to what its leaders recognized of the huge magnitude of exhaustion that had afflicted it, and which began to threaten their entire country, through its economy which was struck by the crisis, and its prestige which had reached rock bottom, and its strategy which was forced to be changed due to its high costs.
